Winery for sale for winemaking, business opportunity and create your own quality winery at an interesting and unique price. It is currently in full activity with production of bottled wines and sale of the guaranteed harvest. The transformation of different grape varieties into quality wine for marketing makes this winery unique and different in the area due to its different types of grapes such as tempranillo, shirac, merlot and cabernet sauvignon. The property is combined with other areas cultivated with olive and almond trees. It is located just 5 km from the town of Jalón and has the reputation of being the best land for growing grapes. A very potential property to turn into your own business and surrounded by nature. Your visit is more than suggested to appreciate its fantastic location.
