Village house in Castell de Castells. The property consists of 259 m2 built over three floors, Ground floor: Entrance hall, living-dining room with fireplace, WC, living room, large space where the stable of the house was originally located and an interior courtyard. First floor: 3 single rooms and 1 large double room with terrace. Second floor: Large attic with terrace, this floor could be converted into a large studio with terrace. The property needs to be reformed with many possibilities to be converted into a charming property and is located in one of the quietest areas of the village having in front of it a free parking area for vehicles, being an ideal space to have a table where to enjoy the summer evenings. Castell de Castells is a village that preserves the charm of yesteryear, very popular with walkers, cyclists, as well as lovers of nature and tranquillity. The village has an ATM machine, shop, bars, restaurants and a chemist, among others.
